Artist Statement

Luke Biedscheid

I watch cartoons now as much as I did as a kid. I work in design and animation because it is something I can be serious about while not taking myself seriously. Whether it is an animation, a design, or even a plate of cookies, I'm dedicated to creating enjoyable experiences for people.
