The Welcome Guest
The Welcome Guest

True friendship’s laws are by this rule exprest,
Welcome the coming, speed the parting guest.—Pope

New York : : Dodge Publishing Company
Copyright, 1912, Dodge Publishing Company
The only way to have a friend is to be one.

500 South Street - St. Morgan

Fanny D. Chapin Aug. 7-9, 1919

Charles R. Curry Sept. 19, 20, 1919

Uncle B. - Oct. - 1919

Mother Nov. 14 - 25 - 1919

515 Lake St.

Mr. J. H. Palmer - April 7-9, 1920

Brother - April 7-9, 1920

Ellen M. Click, July 9-12, 1920.

Remembering dear old days, rejoicing in the good days that now are, and in the better days yet to be.

Father Foster Aug. 4-11, 1920

Everett R. Chapin (himself) Aug. 28-29, 1920 A.D.
Only the great hearted can be true friends.

William Porter Scott Sept
A guest who has earned every moment spent in her
hospital home with devotion host.

No man is useless while he has a friend.

Daniel Maurice Boggess  Oct. 31, 1920

Peter M. Kellogg Hay   Nov. 13, 1920

George Abbott Hay      months old

Tamie Beryl Burdworth  Nov. 20, 1920

Caesar Augustus Patterson May 19, 1922

Who cheated at "Bridge"?
My friend — before him I may think aloud.

Very much love to our children.

Willma Broadwater Parker

Dec. 28, 1921.

Dearie, Harrie Harrow —

M. Ray Black & Christmas 1913

Brother

Miss & Mrs. L. Curren

Miss & Mrs. Arthur Davenport

Nov. 1922
Friendship—one soul in two bodies.

Buck (for the missionary) March 14-15, 1923

Ernie & Pat. Mar. 19-22, 1923

(after the typhoon)

Kirk. Homer District with 7-month-old H. R. Jr.
March 31 - April 2, 1923.

Katie E. Hay. May 20 - 27, 1923

Bobbie Hay

Two friends, two bodies with one soul inspired.

David C. Richards

Mr. & Mrs. E.M. Hard, Ft. Morgan, Colorado, Sept. 2, 1924

Allie B. Alexander, Boulder, Colorado, Oct. 14, 1924

Ingraceously grant us the inestimable privilege of miserably expressing our superstitious appreciation of your magnificent hospitality. To speak plainly, it's surely great
at home - Thouth

Mvrs. Hart & Cul
Baptist State Co. sent
Oct. 20-23, 1924
We can never replace a friend.

Henry & Robert Robertson - June 8-9, 1926.

Alfreda Hills - Aug. 22-29, 1926. A perfect visit.

John and Helen Slater - Sept 3-6, 1926.

Norman and Hester Harman - Sept. 24-26, 1926.

(As a second hint, it is inevitable etc.)

Lenore Chapin - Oct 22, 1926. Just all my love

Norm and the Mrs. Harman - Nov. 25-26, 1926

"or such a matter"

Saul and Blanche Henry - Nov. 6, 1927 - there here even this a year late -
A friend is he who sets his heart upon us.

Fred. B. Palmer, Bernal. Feb. 5-25
Harlan B. Palmer
Audrey M. Palmer
March 21, 28
March 21, 28
March 21, 28

Minnie Harlan Palmer

Fort Collins, again

The Windthorst

A delightful visit.

Lora and Alonzo Edwards. Sept. 27, 1936.

Cousin Carrie Mabel Fulcher.

Cousin Mabel Fulcher. Thanksgiving.

Nov. 26-27, 1936

Orin Scoville

January 18, 1937
Silence, or neglect, dissolves many friendships.

Fern Kuenne and Esther Christopher — April 22-23, 1938

Carrie A. Hanson — Aug. 3, 1938

Katharine C. Slater — July 25+, 1938
John R. Slater — August 7, 1938

Hattie McElroy Hoy — August 23, 1938
Hugh Hoy
Robert Hoy
Friendship—the nearest thing we know to religion.

Elsie Johanson, Denver - Feb 4, 1939

So nice of you to share with me.
Friendship—on earth no word is more sublime.