Scottsbluff for most of the last 47 years, bluff in 1959.

John H. Asay, veteran assistant superintendent at Lovell, retired on July 1 with a record of serving every campaign except one since the opening of the mill 50 years ago.

Jack began his career in 1916, working the first campaign at Lovell, two years before his graduation from Lovell High School. After working later campaigns there and one at Worland for Holly in 1922, he joined the year-around crew at Lovell in 1926.

From 1929 to 1940, Jack took official leave during inter-campaigns to work the cane campaigns at Fajardo Centrale in Puerto Rico. He was first a sugar boiler and then an assistant superintendent. At Lovell, he became an assistant superintendent in 1943. Jack is the brother of Joe Asay, another assistant superintendent at Lovell.

Eugene W. Kyger, a veteran of the Billings operation, retired on July 1 with service dating back nearly 50 years. Gene retired as an assistant superintendent, an appointment he won a year ago. He first worked campaigns at Billings in 1917 and joined the year-around crew in 1924.

Gene became a Steffen foreman in 1928 and a beetend foreman in 1933. And while in the foreman's group, he also served as president of the Billings Local Union.

E. E. (Jack) Whittier, veteran assistant superintendent at Scottsbluff, retired on June 1 with service dating back nearly 50 years.

Jack began his career in 1918 at Sterling, first working campaigns, and joined the year-around crew in 1923. He became a battery foreman in 1924, a Steffen foreman in 1927, and a sugarend foreman in 1945.

In 1947, Jack was promoted to assistant superintendent and moved to Brush. He went on to Ovid in 1948 and to Scottsbluff in 1953.

Jack and his wife Vi, who also worked numerous campaigns, returned to their hometown of Sterling for retirement.

Elberne Hood, a familiar figure at Scottsbluff for most of the last 47 years, retired on July 1 as an assistant master mechanic.

Elberne spent almost all of his career at Scottsbluff, where he first worked campaigns in 1919 and joined the year-around crew in 1925.

Elberne became shop foreman in 1934 and won his appointment as assistant in 1946 at Gering. He returned to Scottsbluff in 1949.

Elberne is the brother of Harry Hood, another Scottsbluff veteran who retired in 1962 as shop foreman, and Jack Hood, assistant superintendent at Longmont.

A. A. Fritzler, veteran assistant master mechanic at Loveland, retired on June 1 with service dating back 50 years.

Alex began his career in 1916, working campaigns at Windsor and Sterling until 1926, when he joined the year-around crew at Windsor. He became warehouse foreman in 1927 and beetend foreman in 1932.

In 1946, Alex was promoted to assistant master mechanic and transferred to Ovid. He moved on to Fort Collins in 1950 and to Loveland in 1955.

Alex is the brother of Robert C. Fritzler, veteran warehouse foreman at Windsor.

Bruce F. Stalling, veteran beetend foreman at Gering, retired on Aug. 1 with service dating back nearly 50 years.

Bruce spent his entire career at Gering, where he first worked campaigns in 1917 and joined the year-around crew in 1925. He became a Steffen foreman in 1927 and a beetend foreman in 1945.

Ervin Lynn, veteran beetend foreman at Lovell, retired last April with service dating back 50 years.

Erv worked all the campaigns at Lovell since the opening of the mill in 1916, except during 1924-25. He joined the year-around crew in 1938 as an extra stationman and became a beetend foreman in 1943.

Ralph W. Andrew, dump repair foreman at Loveland, retired on July 1 with service dating back nearly 30 years.

Ralph was named foreman at Loveland in 1951. Most of his earlier service was at Scottsbluff, where he joined the year-around crew in 1940. He also worked on dump replar for various periods at Bayard, Sterling and Brush, dating back to 1937.

Wilbur S. Barkley, locomotive engineer and watchman at Billings, retired on June 1 with service dating back nearly 40 years.

Bill became locomotive engineer at Billings in 1945, when he joined the year-around crew. He started his career there in 1928, working campaigns.

Frank Peace, a familiar figure at the General Office, retired in June from his work as pattern-maker and fabricator of many other items for various offices.

Frank joined Great Western in 1954 and became chief pattern-maker in 1962 upon the death of Dave Roemer, long-time superintendent of the shop.

In addition to his exacting work of making wood patterns for casting factory machinery, Frank built many pieces of furniture and equipment for the General Office.

A native of Canada, Frank served with the Canadian Army on the Somme and in other famous battles early in World War I.
William M. White, Sr., a member of the Great Western Board of Directors for the last 25 years, died on Aug. 16 of injuries suffered in an auto accident near his home town of Pueblo. His age was 54.

A leading Colorado financier and industrialist, Mr. White was elected to the GW Board in 1941 and was named to the Executive Committee only last year.

Mr. White was the father of William M. White, Jr., of Pueblo and New York, who joined the GW Board earlier this year. Both father and son also sat on the Board of Colorado Milling & Elevator Company, the firm that through stock purchase now controls almost a majority of GW voting stock; young Mr. White is chairman of CM&E.

Mr. White, Sr. was the son-in-law of the late Mahlon D. Thatcher of Pueblo, who was also a GW Director for the most part of 50 years until his death a year ago.

Banking was Mr. White’s principal business interest. He was president of the Minnequa Bank of Pueblo and four other banks in Colorado at Alamosa, Durango, Aspen and Salida. He was also a director of the First National Bank of Denver and the Jefferson County Bank of Lakewood. In addition, he held directorships in a number of other companies, including CF&I Steel in Pueblo.

His other interests, however, had a wide range from ranching to cultural, historical, philanthropical, and community projects. Mr. White was a director of the National Western Stock Show, the Central City Opera House Assn., Centennial Foundation, the board of visitors at St. John’s College and also head of the Helen Thatcher White Foundation.

A native of Pueblo, Mr. White was graduated from the University of Colorado and was a lieutenant in the Navy during World War II. He was the son of the late Asbury White, who founded the White & Davis store in Pueblo in 1880.

Mr. White was married in 1934 to Miss Helen Thatcher, who survives, along with another son, Mahlon, a banker in Durango. Mrs. Thatcher is the granddaughter of Mahlon D. Thatcher, Sr., who with his brother founded the First National Bank of Pueblo in 1872. The elder Mr. Thatcher also served on the first Great Western Board of Directors from 1905 until his death in 1916.
H. R. CORSBERG
... retires as auditor

• H. R. Corsberg, auditor of the Company for the past 26 years, retired on Aug. 1 with nearly 44 years of Great Western service.

Herb and Mrs. Corsberg plan to continue living in Denver at their home at 409 York Street. Their son, Jack, is superintendent of the Sterling sugar factory.

A Great Westerner almost all of his adult life, Herb became auditor and assistant treasurer in 1940. He worked his way up from the job of assistant timekeeper at Eaton, where he joined the Company in 1922.

From Eaton, Herb moved to Fort Collins as timekeeper in 1923 and then to the General Office accounting staff in 1927. After handling side records and general books, he became head bookkeeper and tax accountant in 1932 and then assistant to the auditor in 1937.

Before he joined GW, Herb was in business for two years at Kersey, near Greeley, with his brother Paul, who later worked at Horse Creek Quarry. Herb attended Colorado State College in Greeley and Greeley Commercial College after his graduation from Kersey High School. He was born on a farm east of Greeley.

Among his memberships, Herb belongs to the National Association of Accountants, including a term as president of the Denver chapter; Financial Executives Institute; Administrative Management Society; Washington Park Congregational Church; and George Washington Masonic Lodge No. 161 AF&AM, of which he is a past master.

With his retirement, Herb was guest of honor at a luncheon on Aug. 12 given by his General Office colleagues and the cashiers at the various factories. They presented him with a tape recorder as a going-away gift.

Appointments & Advancements

H. R. CORSBERG
... retires as auditor

E. R. NIEHAUS
... new vice president

J. R. BRENIMER
... new manager of labor relations

CHARLES J. LAUTENBACH
... new assistant controller

M. E. REBHAN
... new assistant treasurer
• Robert A. Witmer, assistant to the auditor, was appointed to the new position of controller of the Company. He succeeds Auditor H. R. Corsberg, who retired.

His appointment was announced on July 20 by President John B. Bunker, who said the office of auditor would be discontinued.

A Great Westerner for 38 years, Witmer began his career as an office boy in his youth and worked his way up in the Accounting Department through the factory offices and the General Office.

Witmer first served at the General Office from 1928 to 1935. Then he went out as a timekeeper at Minatare in 1935 and to Windsor in 1936. In 1942, he returned to Denver and the accounting staff and in 1943 he became head bookkeeper.

In 1947, Witmer was promoted to traveling auditor and in 1951 to accounting supervisor; in 1962, he was appointed assistant to the auditor.

A native of Denver, Witmer attended Skinner Junior High School, North High, and took night courses at Denver and Colorado universities and Barnes School of Commerce.

• Charles J. Lautenbach, accounting supervisor at the General Office, was appointed assistant controller in the July 20 changes in the Accounting Department.

Lautenbach joined Great Western in 1947 as a timekeeper at Ovid and moved on in a few days to Fort Collins in the same job. In 1952, he joined the General Office accounting staff and in 1953 he became head bookkeeper.

In 1954, Lautenbach went out as a cashier to Sterling and in 1959 he moved to Billings. He returned to the General Office in 1962 to become an accounting supervisor.

Lautenbach was graduated from the University of Colorado with a degree in business administration in 1946. His earlier schooling was in Pella, Iowa, his birthplace.

• M. E. Rebhan, assistant to the treasurer, was appointed assistant treasurer by the Board of Directors on June 16.

Rebhan came to the General Office in 1959 from Billings, where he was cashier for four years. He was also cashier at Mitchell from 1953 to 1955.

In an earlier tour at the General Office, Rebhan served in various jobs in both the accounting and tax departments from 1947 to 1953.

Rebhan began his Great Western career in 1941 as a timekeeper at Ovid and moved on to Fort Morgan in 1943.

A graduate of East High School in Denver, Rebhan attended the University of Colorado in Denver and Barnes School of Commerce.

In the June 16 meeting, the Board of Directors re-elected all other officers of the Company and re-appointed all other managerial executives.

At the factories . . .

• Keith C. Matteson, assistant superintendent at Greeley, was promoted in the same position to the Billings factory.

Matteson began his year-around career in 1950 at Sterling, where he also worked campaigns dating back to 1946. He became a beatend foreman in 1949 and won his assistant’s appointment at Greeley in 1962.

A graduate of Sterling High School, Matteson attended Northeastern Junior College and Denver University. He also served in the Navy. He is the son of the late E. J. Matteson, who retired as a fieldman at Fort Collins in 1956.

• Dwight A. Gordon, temporary assistant superintendent at Eaton, was appointed to the same position at Scottsbluff.

Gordon came to Eaton last October when he had to give up his superintendentcy at Findlay for reasons of health. Before going to Findlay in 1961, he served as an assistant superintendent at five factories in nine years.

As an assistant, Gordon went to Brush in 1952, Bayard in 1953, Gering in 1954, Scottsbluff in 1956, and to Billings in 1959. From 1948 to 1952, Gordon was a sugar-end foreman at Fort Morgan. He began his year-around service in 1945, but worked an earlier tour at Ovid from 1929 to 1943 and also served campaigns at Greeley and Johnstown dating back to 1925.

Gordon is the son of the late A. F. Gordon, a Great Western pioneer who was an assistant superintendent at Greeley, Johnstown and Loveland.

• Darwin E. Bliss, assistant superintendent at Gering, was advanced in the same position to the Fort Morgan factory.

Bliss moved to Gering in 1964. Previously, he was an assistant at Brighton from 1962 to 1964 and at Fremont from 1956 to 1962. He began his career at Fremont in 1959 with the old Great Lakes firm.

A graduate of Ross High in Fremont, Bliss served in the Navy during both World War II and the Korean conflict. He is the son-in-law of Don F. Richter, former superintendent at Fremont.

• Jerry W. Shannon, assistant superintendent at Brighton, was promoted in the same position to the Gering factory.

Shannon came to Brighton in 1964 from Fremont, where he was an assistant for two years and a sugarend foreman for three. He began his year-around career at Fremont in 1959, but worked there earlier from 1954 to 1956.

A native of Fremont, Shannon attended Ross High School and Ohio State University before he served in the Army. He is also a son-in-law of Don F. Richter, former superintendent at Fremont.

  Johnson served at Johnstown for two years. Earlier, he was a member of the GW Railway staff at the General Office. A native of Muncie, Ind., Johnson came to Great Western in 1960 from a railroad in Findlay, O.
HENRY A. SCHMODE

Henry served various firms for 48 years, while Mart logged 49 continuous years with Great Western, plus earlier periodic work.

Until a few years ago, Henry was still driving his car about Scottsbluff and was only persuaded to quit by Mart! Henry also served his church in Scottsbluff for well over 50 years, becoming a deacon and then a deacon-emeritus. And until he began to decline early this year, he tended his home and yard and raised flowers. His garden boasted rose bushes over 50 years old!

Henry’s life-long interest in beet sugar —some 75 years—spanned the crude beginnings of the Great Western, in which he took part, to the refinements of the present, which he keenly appreciated. And his death marked the passing from the scene of the oldest Great Westerner of them all —the senior member of the Senior Sugar Tramps.

A. M. GINN

A. M. Ginn, the irreplaceable Great Western pioneer who retired to a second career, died on June 16 in California. His age was 81.

Dol, as he was known for Adolphus, was stricken by a heart attack while visiting his “adopted” daughter and family at Rancho Santa Fe.

A Great Westerner for nearly 50 years, Dol retired in 1950 as manager at Bayard. His sugar career dated back to 1902, at Eaton, when he worked as a water boy and tool monkey during the construction of the factory and then delivered the first bag of sugar from the mill for the old Big Store in Eaton.

But sugar was only one of his careers. When he retired, he devoted full time to his farm and feeding operations on his place north of Bayard. In 1958, however, he took an extensive trip to South America and thereby began his second career.

Upon his return, he was invited by John D. Edwards, Jr., to describe his trip to the Rotary Club. His presentation was so engaging that he spent the next two years telling about his travels to 125 service clubs, all free of charge, even paying his own expenses.

In the meantime, Dol resumed his world travels and eventually visited 85 countries, including most of those behind the Iron Curtain. All the while, he took color slides and collected artifacts and other materials.

In 1962, now a vigorous 77 years old, Dol was auditioned and booked for a three-year contract to deliver his travels to public assemblies in the southern states. After another extensive world tour, he began his speaking engagements the next year, usually appearing at two or three schools a day, traveling from one town to another.

“It’s fun,” Dol told the Scottsbluff Star-Herald after his first tour. “It’s the most rewarding thing I ever tried to do. So many adults don’t have time for kids, but they attract me!”

Dol lost his only son, a Navy pilot, in the United States in 1944, while he worked at the sugar factory. Dol also served as a superintendant and moved to Windsor in 1909 before going to Scottsbluff.

A. H. EDWARDS

Alonso H. Edwards, a chief chemist at three factories for 35 years, died on July 22 in Burbank, Calif., where he lived in retirement. He was 76 years old.

Lon retired in 1955 at Sterling, where he served in the lab for 26 years. Earlier, he was at brush from 1922 to 1929, at Loveland for the campaign of 1922, and at Greeley from 1918 to 1922, where he became chief chemist in 1920. He began his career in 1916 at Fort Morgan.

Lon was the husband of Lona Edwards, who was the lab clerk at Brush and then superintendent’s clerk at Sterling for many years.

Mrs. Edwards wrote that Lon led a happy life in California and enjoyed hearing from and visiting his Great Western friends. In recent years, she added, Lon was not able to get around very much but was always cheerful and enjoyed all he was able to do.
Daryl Brumley, son of Mr. & Mrs. W. L. Brumley of Greeley, pitched several winning games for the CSC team last season. He's a sophomore majoring in physical education.

Jim Lantz, son of Mr. & Mrs. Harrison Lantz of Greeley, appears in his Scout uniform with his new Eagle Award. He belongs to Troop 3 in Greeley.

Sugar and Foreman Pete Brumley of Greeley displays the wrist watch he chose for winning the Safety Promotion Prize.

G/6/14—Top Mechanic George Heiser and his wife recently returned from a vacation trip to visit his brother, Harold Heiser, in the Lake Tahoe area. They enjoyed the scenic ride around Lake Tahoe and a trip through historic Virginia City. George says he shook hands with Liberace and also the one-armed bandits, leaving behind a little money respectively.

Greg Headlee spent a week with his parents in York, Neb., on his vacation. He will spend 2 weeks with his Uncle Sam the last of July and the first of August. Greg is a member of the Reserve Armed Forces. (Greg is dryer fireman.)

Top Mechanic James Pratt will also spend two weeks in reserve training this summer at Camp McCoy, Wisconsin.

Royce Belden
W/6/12—Another GW Weekend in Estes Park has come and gone, rewarding all with new friends and the pleasure of seeing the old ones too. Surprised when their names were drawn from the hat for door prizes at the Ladies Luncheon were Mrs. Paul H. Keller, Mrs. C. E. Chipman and Carol Schmidt. The ladies made a fine showing at the bridge tables.

We are very proud of our golf pros who placed in their flights. They are as follows: Duane McDonald, first in championship flight; C. E. Chipman, first in flight 4; Glenn Troudt, second in flight 4; Jim Amos, first in flight 5 and Chuck Merritt, second in flight 6. Duane McDonald, C. E. Chipman, Charles H. Chipman and Glenn Troudt composed the team to win the Traveling Trophy. Congratulations to all our pros.

Boiler House Foreman Carl Steinbrecher recently became grandfather of an 8 lbs. 15 oes. baby girl. They named her Tammy Lynn. Tammy’s parents are Mr. and Mrs. Alan Zornes. Mrs. Zornes is Carl’s daughter Carol.

Deepest sympathy of the entire mill is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Mike Rutz, Jr., and family in the death of their daughter Isabell Rutz Lindahl on May 17. In addition to her parents, she is survived by her husband Roland and two daughters, Christine and Paula.

—Carol Schmidt

C/6/2—Herbert Wright, watchman, was presented with a 5-year service pin by Supt. Jim Amos. Fred Martin, watchman, is taking a two-week vacation. Oscar Hanson, retired warehouse foreman is replacing him and will also replace the other two watchmen when they take their vacations.

The fieldmen are busy with the problems of growing beets, labor and lack of rain. However the rain last week was indeed a blessing for the beets as well as the other crops.

—Lovena McGraw

Jean Fagler McCoy, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Adam Fagler, Jr., of Windsor, was a June graduate of Windsor High School.

Kathleen Marie Hemmerle, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Valdo Hemmerle of Windsor, also was graduated from Windsor High.

Ronald Lewis, son of Mr. & Mrs. Earl Lewis of Greeley, joined the Army and now serves in artillery at Fort Carson.

Claude Lewis, another son of the Earl Lewis of Greeley, graduated from Central High and plans to attend CSC.

Jacky White, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Don White of Greeley, was a candidate for lady-in-waiting for the Go West Days.

Paul McGraw, son of Lovena & Nelson McGraw of Fort Collins, was a June graduate of Poudre High School in Collins.

Jack Dinnel, son of Mr. & Mrs. Don Dinnel of Greeley, graduated from Platte Valley High, where he starred in sports.
• V/6/23—We have two new assistant master mechanics at Loveland. They are Ronald Olsen and Richard Fulton. Ron comes to us from Ovid where he held an assistant master’s job. He started his year-around work in 1957 at Lovell as top mechanic and machinist. He was promoted to assistant master in 1962 at Lovell. Dick came from Gering, where he also was an assistant master. He started his year-around work in 1953 at Mitchell. In 1956 he was transferred to Lovell as shop foreman, in ’57 to Billings as shop foreman, back to Lovell in ’59 as assistant master. In 1960 he was sent to Bayard and then in ’62 to Gering.

We would like to welcome both Ron and Dick and hope that things go fine for them.

Things are moving along fairly well at Loveland, with the new white pans, coolers, and the new third evaporator. Alex Fritzler retired this month after some 40 years with the Company. He started year-around in 1926 at Windsor, where he had various station jobs and worked up to beetend foreman. In 1945 he transferred to Ovid as assistant master mechanic; then in 1950 to Fort Collins. Alex came to Loveland in 1955.

The crew at Loveland got together and bought Alex a Skill saw as a retirement gift. We hope that he and Mrs. Fritzler enjoy his retirement ever so much.

Miss Sheryl Lebsack, daughter of Dryer Foreman Harry Lebsack, has won the honor of “DE Student of the Year” at the recent convention of Distributive Education clubs in Denver. This enables her to compete in national competition at Chicago.

Mike Krogmeier, son of Mr. & Mrs. Gene Krogmeier of Sterling, graduated from Sterling High with sports honors.

Darrel Dean Vigen, at left, and Duane Gene Vigen, at right, twin sons of Mr. & Mrs. Joel Vigen of Sterling, graduated from Sterling High School and plan to attend Northeastern Junior College.

Susan Bauer, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. H. G. Bauer of Ovid, graduated from Ovid High with academic honors and plans to attend CSC.

Ruth Quint, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Clem Quint of Merino, graduated from Merino High School and now attends CSC in Greeley.
Bernadine Kalinowski, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Joe Kalinowski of Sterling, graduated from Sterling High and now works in Collins.

Airman Teddy Messersmith, son of Mr. & Mrs. A. E. Messersmith of Sterling, now serves in advanced missile training at Chanute AFB, Ill.

Sandra Diel, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Ray Diel of Sterling, graduated from Sterling High and plans to attend nursing school.

Charles Spall, left, son of Mr. & Mrs. John Spall of Sterling, graduated from Sterling High with sports honors, while his brother James, right, graduated from Navy electronics and entered advanced schooling for two years. Chuck plans to attend Colorado Mines.

Sandra Wecker, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Vernon Wecker of Sterling, graduated from Sterling High and plans to attend NJC.

Dorothe Ball, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. R. W. Ball of Sterling, graduated from Sterling High with music honors and attends NJC.

Ron Mildenberger, son of Mr. & Mrs. Wally Mildenberger, graduated from Fort Morgan High with a scholarship to Colorado Mines.

Ivan Stahle, son of Mr. & Mrs. Ivan Stahle of Sterling, graduated from Sterling High with sports honors; he goes to Utah State.
Linda English, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. T. E. English of Fort Morgan, graduated from Morgan High and plans to attend Cal.

Tom Schantz, son of Mr. & Mrs. Fred Schantz of Fort Morgan, took his history degree at CU with work in journalism. He plans to join the Peace Corps for 2 years and then study in England.

Teddy Wood, son of Mr. & Mrs. Harvey Wood of Fort Morgan, graduated from Morgan High and plans to attend Northeastern JC.

Karen Martin, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Albert Martin, graduated from Fort Morgan High School and plans to major in physical education at CSC at Greeley.

In Viet Nam, Bert Eastman of Fort Morgan relaxes from duty at right in his "home" at Bien Hoa, north of Saigon, with the First Infantry Division. Bert is the son of Mr. & Mrs. Jack Eastman.

• Q/6/17—Phil Mollendor, son of Mr. & Mrs. Phil Mollendor, Sr., of Ovid has been selected to represent Sedgwick County at Boys’ State. His school activities include membership in the “Q” club, Student Council and participation in the class play, football, track and baseball. He has maintained a B average in school. The Ovid beet sheds north of factory came under the obsolete column and were torn down this month. The view to the north is quite bare now and the northern winds will have a better sweep of the factory.

Jerry Young, fieldman at Big Springs, Neb., won the safety contest drawing for the month of March. He chose a floor polisher as his prize.

Electrician Bill Samson spends every free moment remodeling their home and since it is located across from the factory, we are quick to notice the improvement.

Storekeeper Ike Orth bought a new car that says "Wildcat" on the side to bring his baby daughter home from the hospital. Teresa Kay weighed in at 9 lbs. 13 ozs. on June 2.

Warehouse Foreman LeRoy Kintz bought a car to go hunting for sharp pointed rocks called arrow-heads. Many others also traded; guess spring gives everyone that go-go feeling.

Jack Peyrouse, Sr., Assistant from Loveland, and his wife stopped by to visit the crew. Jack Peyrouse, their son, chairman of speech and drama department at Doane College in Crete, Nebr., presented the commencement speech at Ovid High.

Mr. & Mrs. Charles Foss are again enjoying the weekends in their cabin in Poudre Canyon.

Janitor Finley Ritter has taken Mrs. Johnson’s beautification campaign seriously and at last report had ten lawns to care for. This is a true moonlighting job as it sometimes takes him that long to complete.

Asst. Master Mechanic Ron Olsen has been transferred to Loveland mill.

Stanley Lechman and his wife are parents of a new daughter born May 27 weighing 8 lbs. 7 ozs. Kimberly Ann was welcomed home by two brothers.

Raymond Seeber won the safety contest drawing for month of April and chose a grill and waffle iron for his gift.
Edward Schafer won the safety contest for May netting him a lovely gift.

Timekeeper Leonard Heit and wife are parents of a third daughter born June 9. They named their new daughter Amy Jo-

S/6/15—We wish to welcome our new fieldman Jim Moravek to the Sterling organization. Jim & his wife come to us from Greeley. He replaces Bill Thoren, who has accepted a position with the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. We wish Bill the best of luck in his new job.

Several from Sterling attended the GW weekend in Estes Park. The men’s bowling team consisting of John Spall, Roy French, Varlan Weker, Ivan Stahl & Smokey Zimmerman, placed second; Roy French & Ivan Stahl captured first place in the doubles, & Ivan Stahl won first place in the singles. In the golf tournament, Jim Donelan captured second place in the first flight.

Mr. & Mrs. John Schrade are vacationing in Washington & Oregon.

Mr. & Mrs. John Pace are the proud parents of a baby daughter, Roberta, born May 13.

Congratulations to Dominic Vecchia, son of Mr. & Mrs. Aldo Vecchia, who was elected vice president of the Sterling High student body for 1966-67.

Tom Reichert, son of Ruby Reichert, was awarded a trophy for outstanding Junior boy from Sterling High by the Sterling Masonic Lodge at a special dinner honoring area students. Tom attended Boys State at CSU as a delegate.

Asst. Supt. Clyde Pleifer & Asst. M.-M. Geo. Mark are helping with the boiler installation at Fremont.

Nearly one-third of the permanent crew had a daughter or a son who graduated from high school this year. We are very proud of these young people and wish them much success in the future.

Ed Slama entertained the retired Sterling factory employees & their wives on May 2 in the Public Service Community room in observance of his 73rd birthday.

The event is reported here by Mrs. Henry Montgomery.

Ed showed slides of his home workshop & tools, where he spends many hours working on his hobbies, repairing all kinds of clocks, making little windmills & numerous gadgets including a miniature threshing machine & a model of the sugar factory. His clock collection now numbers 118.

Leland Groves & Henry Montgomery also showed slides of various places they have visited in their travels.

J. Elliot Hays suggested that the retired Sugar Tramps have regular get-togethers, possibly once or twice a year or more often, similar to the Last Squad meetings of men of the U. S. Armed Forces. Elliot was water boy at the time the Sterling mill was built in 1905.

Mr. Slama served a lunch, which included a beautifully decorated birthday cake, to the following: Mr. & Mrs. J. Elliot Hays, Mr. & Mrs. Ed Litty, Mr. & Mrs. Glen Armstrong, Ed Drew, Ralph Sheck, Miss Dorothy Scheck, Mr. & Mrs. Leland Groves, Mr. & Mrs. Henry Montgomery, Mr. & Mrs. D. A. Gillespie, Mrs. Guy Gillespie & Mrs. Hazel Pickering.

Jo Anne Hooper, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Sabin Hooper, graduated from Gering High School and plans to enter Nebraska U.

Catherine Cross, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Don Cross of Scottsbluff, took her BA degree at CSC and will teach in Fort Collins.

Carolyn Culver, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Carol Culver, graduated from Gering High with academic honors to go on to CSC.

Pete Karubos, son of Mr. & Mrs. Nick Karubos of Scottsbluff, graduated from Milford Trade School in construction and drafting.

Valorie Arends, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. John Arends, graduated from Minatare High. Her father works at Scottsbluff.

F/6/14—George and Emma Heimbuch have returned from a trip to Eastern Minnesota where they visited Emma’s brother. They also spent time with other relatives on their way back.

Our hospital notes show that Virgil Wecker had the remainder of his big toe taken off last week. Virgil lost part of his toe six weeks ago in an accident. We wish him a speedy recovery. Harry Reents was admitted to the hospital last week for observation. We hope that Harry is found to be in good physical shape and that he will soon be back to work.

Pete & Mrs. Vallejo are the proud parents of a new baby boy. He is the second child for the Vallejos.

The baseball season is here again and many of our men are helping out with the little leagues. Jerry Fertig is the National League commissioner and is serving as an umpire. Milton Muth is managing one of the teams with Dick Kraus helping him. Ron England is also managing a team with the help of Ralph Castanada.
The girls of the Scottsbluff and Gering campaign office crews get together for a post-campaign luncheon. From left, Judy England, wife of Ron and daughter of Floyd Logan of Fremont; Irma Waggoner, wife of H. T.; Joyce Drumheller; Gretchen Wimmer; Frieda Conn, wife of Farrell; Mary Ina and Debbie Einsel; Bonnie Cross, wife of Don; Fran Henderson; Joyce Reitz; Evelyn Behm, Lucille McElroy; Jean Goodell, Shirley Gilbaugh; and Freda Lawson, wife of Joe.

Our parking lot is beginning to look like we have a few General Motors stockholders employed here. Farrell Conn is driving a new Oldsmobile and Leo Shanadera and Pat Pumphrey are sporting new Buicks around.

The Scottsbluff Country Club was the site of the Technical Society's final meeting for this year. The 132 members and guests present represented all Great Western's factories but two: Robert A. Wherry, Corporate Secretary, was the guest speaker. His talk covered GW's Pension Plan; the trends in state and federal regulations regarding Unemployment Insurance and Social Security and how they affect Great Western programs.

In conjunction with the Technical meeting a no-hostess buffet supper was held at the Copper Kettle for the wives of those attending the Technical meeting. It was reported that the 55 ladies present at the buffet all had a very good time.

As a prelude to the Valley Sugar Tramp Bowling Tournament, two teams from the Scottsbluff Teamsters Union had a grudge match with the gold team coming up victorious. The winning team consisted of Dick Kraus, Leo Shadera, Merle Waitman and Neil Westerveldt. The losers, known as the Blue team (both in feelings & color) were Irv Zitterkopf, Louis Reiselman, Glenn Reed, Norm Vogel and Ron England. To the victors went the beer.

John Ostermiller returned from his April vacation in California. While in California, John stayed with his sister Karen, who teaches in Riverside. He also journeyed to Las Vegas to watch the Tournament of Champions. His luck on the tables in Vegas was stated as being "fair to good."

In the Scottsbluff warehouse, Foreman George Heimbuch whispers a few words of instruction to his sugar crews.

Sugar Boiler Levi Koenig of Scottsbluff, left, receives his 15-year GW service pin from Asst. Master Mechanic Dayle Williams.
Sharon Case, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Carl Case of Bayard, graduated from Bayard High School and plans to attend Chadron State.

Cheryl Amend Ellingson, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Herman Amend of Bayard, graduated from Kearney State and will teach in Fremont.

Robert Erdman, son of Mr. & Mrs. Bob Erdman, graduated from Bayard High where he won athletic honors.

Shirley Cross, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Jonathan Cross, graduated from Bayard High and plans to attend Bluffs College.

Mike Spurgin, son of Mr. & Mrs. C. A. Spurgin, graduated from Alliance High and plans to attend Nebraska U.

Lee Ann Pontine, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. LeRoy Pontine, graduated from Bayard High and plans to attend Chadron State.

Larry Pfeiffer, son of Mr. & Mrs. Ed Pfeiffer, graduated from Bayard High and plans to attend Scottsbluff College.

Marra Dee Elder Rich, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Paul Elder, took her degree at Kearney State and plans to teach.

Linda Giauque, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Lowell Giauque, graduated with academic and activity honors from Bayard High and will attend CSC at Greeley.
Arlene Reinmuth, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Clarence Reinmuth, graduated from Bridgeport High and plans to attend Kearney State.

Bayard's Asst. M-M John Love ll, left, receives a going-away gift from Ardon High and the crew upon his transfer to the Gering mill.

Bayard Manager Lowell Giauque, left, presents a 10-year GW service pin to Dump Repair Crewman George Colgrove.

Fieldman Jim Davidson of Bayard rouses himself from a lunch siesta with heroic gestures befitting a strenuous worker.

- D/6/22—It appears that Bayard's Editor better be making another attempt for a few Sugar Press notes.

Harry Banghart, shop foreman, is presently making plans for his retirement in July. Harry has purchased a new pickup truck with camper and plans to do an extended amount of traveling. We wish Harry the best of luck on his retirement and future years.

John Lovell, assistant master mechanic the past four years, has been transferred to Gering. Congratulations to John on his new appointment.

Quite a few changes have been taking place around the mill. Auto-white centrifugals have been added along with new presses. Doing the most damage has been Jim Burry. He has the centrifugal job and has been tearing down about everything in sight, although he has been getting things back together in pretty good shape.

The white trim and window trim on the main buildings have been painted and a good job of it was done by Fred McDaniel and Wayne Muhr.

And here's George Colgrove, again, in a photo marking the fact that he won the April Safety Promotion Prize at Bayard.

Bayard's winner in the May Safety Promotion Prize drawing was Warehouse Foreman Emery Sherfey.

Bayard's graduating seniors included John Elliott, son of Mr. & Mrs. John R. Elliott of Bayard. Young John took his degree in chemistry at Chadron State College and then went on to summer sessions at CSU at Fort Collins. He plans to continue his graduate work at the University of Nebraska in the fall.

Recent service pin awards at Bayard. From left, Asst. M-M Jim Burry, 15 years; Top Mechanic Bob Erdman, 15; Asst. Supi. Carl Case, 25; Sugar Boiler Jerry Muhr, 5; and Shop Foreman Harry Banghart, 15 years.

Vice President Bob Fisher, in the photo at left, traces the progress of the Northern Ohio Sugar Company over the last 11 years at the annual meeting of the Beet Sugar Technical Society for Fremont and Findlay members last April. Fisher noted that sugar per acre rose from 3,230 pounds to 4,384 pounds, while sugar production of the two mills totaled over 100 million pounds last campaign in comparison with 47 million in the first season with Great Western.
Judy Rudolph, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Gordon Rudolph, graduated from Ross High in Fremont with an outstanding record in academics and music. She achieved a perfect record of all A's in her 12 years of school and won numerous awards for violin. Judy plans to attend the University of Cincinnati, where she won a talent scholarship for the study of music.

• Fr/6/13—Considering our long campaign, work on the new boiler house is progressing very well here at Fremont. Great Westerners out here supervising and assisting with the construction are as follows: Former Fremont Asst. Supt. Jerry Shannon, of Brighton; Asst. Supt. Clyde Pfeifer and Asst. M.M. George Mark from Sterling; Sugar Boiler Robert DeManche and Top Mechanic David Lindblade from Ovid; Top Mechanics Don McClure and W. H. Snook and Boiler House Foreman William Kisinger from Billings. From our sister factory in Findlay are Sugarend Foremen Bob Kelin, Richard Moon and Merle Butler, Extra Station Man Ernie Nivison, and Utility Man Wilbur Williamson.

Congratulations to Fieldman and Mrs. Richard Saionz, on the arrival of twin sons on March 17.

Also the Floyd Logans on moving into their new home at 1815 Martin in Fremont.

We wish to extend our sincere sympathy to the family of Robert Franks, repairman, who was killed in an auto accident last month here in Fremont.

—Rita Swint

It’s hardly any wonder that Asst. Supt. Al Schmidt of Fremont wears a smile all the while—with these happy-go-lucky twin grandsons, just three months old here. They are Paul and Pat Schmidt, sons of the Robert Schmidts. But twins are nothing new for Grandpa Al and Granma Viola. The twin grandsons’ father, Bob, is a twin himself!

Tom Schlothauer, son of Mr. & Mrs. Alvin Schlothauer of Windsor, took his engineering degree at CSU and plans to study at USC.

Specialist 4/C Harold Hutt, son of Mr. & Mrs. Quinten Hutt of Fort Morgan, returns home from duty in Korea in September.

The Fremont agricultural staff introduces two recent additions—Fieldmen Lyle Haar, on the left, and Charles Cross. Lyle works in the North Elmore area and lives near Gibsonburg with his wife Margaret and son. Charles serves the Curlicue and Williston areas and lives in Williston with his wife Wilma and daughter.
Cheryl Clark, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Ken Clark, graduated from Findlay High School and plans to attend Miami U. in Ohio.

Larry E. Marquart, son of Mr. & Mrs. Laverne Marquart, graduated from Findlay High and now works for Cooper Tire.

Lois Conley, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Ray Conley, graduated from Findlay High and plans to enter nurse's training.

Nancy Schneider, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Gus Schneider, graduated from Findlay High and plans to enter CSU at Fort Collins.

Linda Saxton, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Harold Saxton, graduated from Findlay High and plans to attend CSU.

William Coon, son of Mr. & Mrs. Lee Coon, graduated from Findlay High and plans to study engineering at Ohio Northern.

Patricia Olwick, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Ray Olwick, graduated from Van Buren High and plans to enter business college.

- CHI/6/15—It's been a long time since we at the Chicago Terminal contributed to The Sugar Press. We have had a busy year and see another busy year ahead of us. We have just completed a new 125,000 gallon storage tank outside. Now we are in the process of building a new office. Several of our employees have sons or daughters in college. Joni Michalcik has finished her third year at the University of Illinois, where she is majoring in rhetoric. Edward Waznak's son Terry completed his first year at Ottawa University at Ottawa, Kansas.

One of our employees, Kent Ulmer, is leaving college for a four-year stint in the Army. Kenneth Gjundjek, another employee, will spend two weeks at Camp McCoy, Wis., with the National Guard. Leroy Measner will spend his two weeks of Air Force Reserve duty at Akron, Ohio.

Thomas Hanson, who has been working here part time, is graduating from high school this month. He will attend I.B.M. School in the fall. Garry Minarcine and Jim Greene, two of our part-time boys, will continue their education at Northern Illinois University in DeKalb. George Rainey will continue working here while attending the University of Illinois Chicago Campus in the fall. Edwin Voss will start his second year at St. Ambrose College in Dubuque, Iowa.

—Mildred Michalcik

- HC/6/7—Ernie Brewer, wife of Machineman Stanley Brewer, flew to Fort Gordon, Georgia recently for a visit with their son Gail, before he left the States for overseas duty. While there, they did quite a lot of sight seeing around Savannah, as well as in Charleston, S.C. They also took a yachting tour around the Harbor of History and visited old Fort Sumter, and toured one of the world's largest Naval Complexes where they saw submarines, mineweepers, destroyers tenders and cruisers. Shortly after Mrs. Brewer returned home, Gail went to Fort Dix and flew from there to Germany where he will be stationed for some time.

—Lois E. Lang
Wayne Townsend, son of Mr. & Mrs. Harold Townsend, Jr., of Horse Creek, graduated from Cheyenne Central High with plans to serve in the Navy and then enter Wyoming U. He's working this summer at Horse Creek Quarry.

Robert L. Lopez, son of Mr. & Mrs. Robert Lopez of Horse Creek, took his degree at the University of Wyoming with honors and continues there in graduate study for his master's degree in adult education.

George Berlin, II, son of Mr. & Mrs. George Berlin of Golden, graduated from Golden High School and plans to study fine arts at CSC at Greeley. He's also working at the Quarry this summer.

Gail Brewer, son of Mr. & Mrs. Stanley Brewer of Horse Creek, continues his service in the U. S. Army overseas at Zweibrucken, Germany.

And here's another familiar face at Johnstown—Bill Peterson, now at the MSG Plant in the job of assistant master mechanic.

The other side of the coin.

- We all are inclined to "see red" these days when we contemplate a hospital bill. Hospital costs—and fees—have risen both rapidly and substantially in recent years. But here is a little story that presents the other side of the coin. It starts with an all-too-common newspaper headline which reads about as follows:

  CAR HITS TREE
  Driver's condition critical at local hospital.

  The article then goes on to tell of an early morning auto accident—how the patient was picked up by police and brought into the hospital in critical condition at 2:00 A.M. Injuries include several fractures and internal injuries. It's a nip-and-tuck fight until around 8:00 A.M. when the patient is reported "off the critical list."

  All this is just a routine sort of news item—you will find one in your morning paper most any day. And it is a routine experience in any hospital—but consider what has been called into action:

  - 2 Emergency Room Nurses
  - 1 Orderly
  - 1 Intravenous Technician
  - 1 Admitting Officer
  - 1 Intern or Resident
  - 1 Staff Surgeon (on call)
  - 1 Pharmacist or Night Supervisor to prepare medications
  - Staff of "Special Care" Unit—
    - 1 Anesthetist
    - 2 Operating Room Nurses
    - 1 Orthopedic Surgeon

  In a six-hour period, 26½ man hours by 21 hospital staff people were directed toward saving one life. And before the sun sets again, many others will have an impact on that patient's well-being—Administration, floor nurses, medical records, housekeeping, accounting, laundry, maintenance, etc., etc.

  Something to think about the next time you see the headline, "Car Hits Tree"—or when you see a hospital bill.

Attention eternal optimists who have tried the Guatemala Air Force Diet, the Green Apple with Water Diet, the Irish Fortune Cookie Diet, or the Satisfaction Guaranteed or Double-Your-Weight-Back Lichee Nut and Asparagus Diet—announcing the Most-Fantastic-Fad-Diet-of-All:

The Strawberry Shortcake Diet.

If you feel a little guilty about enjoying sugar, move over. It’s almost our national pastime. What this country needs is a good five-cent rationalization, and we’ve got one. The Strawberry Shortcake Diet.

Of course there’s a catch to it. As with all fad diets you’ll begin to need other kinds of food, too, and another fad diet will be done for. This time, though, you’ll learn something, so it shouldn’t be a total loss.

You’ll discover all over again that things made with sugar taste very good, and that sugar satisfies hunger pangs fast. Sugar helps prevent overeating. Sugar helps quench fatigue. And if you’re on a sensible “eat less” diet, sugar in a piece of cake, coffee, or a soft drink can help your diet succeed.

See that one over there with the extra glob of whipped cream on top? Whadduya say we start with that? Stay with sugar in your diet... only 18 calories per teaspoon, and it’s all energy!
