The Colorado Beekeepers Association

The annual meeting of the Colorado Beekeepers Association was called to order by the president, J. Kyle McLaugherty, at 1:10 pm Dec. 5, 1952, in the Western Room of the Auditorium Hotel, Denver Colo.

Invocation.

The chair appointed Jim Pierson to act as vice-pres. And Gene Sanders was appointed Sgt-at-arms.

Mr. D. W. Spangler, of Longmont, was complimented on his long and faithful service to the Association by voting him an Honorary Membership without further dues. (in Colo. Asso.)

Address by pres. Kyle, in which he asked us to try to find out why more beekeepers were not attending our meetings and see if we could find a way of correcting the situation. Also, we should consolidate our efforts and expenses on fewer things to do more thoroughly. He presented the following recommendations for the meeting to consider:

1. The Assn. set up a permanent schedule to collect dues.
2. The Assn. make a formal request to the American Beekeeping Federation for more help on bee disease research.
3. The Assn. make a cash contribution to Colo. A. & M. college for work on EF B
4. The Assn. send a representative to Denver, Dec 13th and also, in March with expenses paid to meet other commodity groups to learn how we can be a part of the planning program next year.
5. The Assn. set up a program to create a feeling of pride in belonging to the Association.
6. The Assn. cooperate with those members of our group who call meetings on Monday mornings at the same time the Assn.'s standing committees meet rather than split up our forces, give them all day Monday and have the Assn. meeting Tuesday and Wednesday.

Otto Pfretzschmer reported on the activities of the Colo. Honey Administrative Committee:

$1000 was spent for paper advertising within the state; $2800 went outside of Colo.
Hope-Flanagan money was matched making $500 to carry on a survey of honey markets.

A committee had been appointed to place an exhibit in the lobby of the hotel which was very nice. Otto got permission from the hotel manager to invite grade school children to come see the display. He sent 110 letters to teachers inviting them to come. Between 500 & 600 saw the exhibit before the meeting was over. Albert Crouse, and some others lectured to the pupils as they viewed the display.

John Holzberlien gave a talk on 'Queens', emphasizing how to tell a good queen, then how to get one and how to use her.
Higher prices and more demand for Colorado Honey... More efficient and productive beekeeping methods... Cooperation and understanding among bee people. Better bee Pasture... Control poison sprays, diseases and enemies of bees.

The Colorado Beekeepers Association

Meeting opened to comments and discussions.
Motion that this meeting go on record to support morally the Honey Marketing Agreement. CARRIED. Culhane - Green.

Dramatic Club was in the hospital, they were unable to give us the entertainment that had been planned. So Kyle McClougherty, Jr., one of the club, gave us an impersonation of a Christmas story. It was well done.

In the absence of John Holzberlein, Smith read his letter as a report for the chairman of the poison spray and dust committee. Smith continued with his experiences. CBA minutes for 1955 continued.

Motion by Watkins: Due to the seeming lack of understanding of the farmers and commercial applicators concerning the application of insecticides that might be injurious to bees, I move that the President of CBA be instructed to appoint an educational committee to meet with the proper state officials, in order to help educate the applicators in the best methods to be used which would cause the minimum damage to honey bees and at the same time control the harmful insects. Motion was seconded and carried.

Smith gave a report on the $27.00 for state fair prizes. There was a discussion of the merits of the program. Motion was made, seconded and carried to extend the program another year.

The 1957 winter meeting of the Colorado Beekeepers Ass'n was called to order at the Auditorium Hotel in Denver on December 10, 1957 by president Gerald Rose.

First order of business was a report by Pat Powers on inspection work. He discussed a partnership of beekeeper, applicator and at times a combine operator in the production of alfalfa seed.

The president called for a report from the nominating committee. Their report was as follows:

Gerald Rose for president, Kenneth Adcock for Vice president, and Harold Rice for Secretary Treasurer. There were no nominations from the floor. It was moved, Seconded that the nominations be closed and th the Secretary cast a unanimous ballot for the nominees. Motion carried

The minutes of the 1956 meeting were read and approved as read.

The financial report was read and accepted.

Robert Dadant gave a talk on topics of interest to be beekeepers. He gave us the latest information on Royal Jelly, bee breeding. He discussed methods of increasing wax production. Meeting was adjourned for the noon hour.

We were guests of the Superior Honey Co. at a dinner, Dr Sturtevant gave us a talk on the phases of his work at Fort Laramie.

The meeting reconvened at 2 PM and Dr, Sturtevant told us of the use of radioactive materials to show the effect of drifting and its effect on the spread of disease.

There was a discussion relative to moving bees into the state. No action was taken as it was considered likely that we might lose as much as we might gain by asking for more restrictive laws.

There was a discussion of the possibility of the Ass'n paying part of the expense of our delegates to the Convention of the American Beekeeping Fed. It was moved, seconded and passed that a committee be appointed to work out a policy for the Ass'n. Committee appointed was: Sanders, Holzberlein & Watkins. Committee was to report later at this meeting.

There was a discussion of the State Fair prizes. It was moved, seconded and carried that the Ass'n adopt as its policy to pay up to $40.00 each year as prizes at the State Fair.

No action was taken relative to damages by bears.

It was moved seconded and carried that we invite Otto Pfreitzchner and wife to be our guests at the banquet that night. It was hoped we might find out something of help to get a booth at the stock show. It was reported later that the Pfreitzchners would be unable to attend.

Mr. Hart of The Fish & Game Dept. gave a talk on the legal aspects of claims due to damage by protected game animals. Meeting adjourned for a noon recess.

The meeting reconvened at 1:15 and there was an extended discussion of the possibility of a booth at the Stock Show. Due to the late date a motion was made to table the matter for this session. Motion was seconded and duly passed.

Motion was made that we appropriate $500.00 for research at the A. & M. College with the research committee to work out a research program. Motion was seconded and duly passed.

Motion was made we adjourn, motion was seconded and duly passed.
The meeting of this committee was held March 1, 1957, in the offices of Joe Moffett on the Colorado State University campus.

Present were Dr. Daniels, Joe Moffett, Bill Wilson, William Aiken, Gerald Rose, and L. E. Mills.

Considerable discussion was held about the use of biological control as related to control by insecticides. The consensus of opinion was that biological control would be of longer lasting benefit and probably more effective—and that we need considerably more research in both fields. A resolution was passed to this effect.

We have a research program that has been, and still is, in operation that was started in July of 1956 relating to residue from insecticides and other materials that are applied to crops as pertaining to beekeepers.

Conclusion reached from this:

That we as beekeepers should make our needs and problems known and cooperate with aerial and other applicators as an educational project.

It was suggested by Dr. Daniels that we have a regional research program: To take advantage of our A & M Laboratory, sending in bees to be tested that are suspected of having been killed by poisons; also, that this laboratory be used oftener for any diagnosis problems we have as beekeepers.

It was also suggested that a better educational program be directed to the farmers as to whether they need a control program on a particular crop at a certain time, with recommendations as to the type of control and application if needed.

The need for this type of educational program is indicated as some applicators are mainly interested in selling their services and insecticides for the money involved. Many times this is being done even though the chemical control is not needed.

Nectar secretion study-- as a basic research program. Problem: why in some years there are good sources of nectar in an area and in other years the nectar source is very poor.

The committee felt that there was a great need for this type of research program and recommend it for study. Further research on antibiotics for the control of bee diseases—some of the proposed tests to be made on the following: Galamicin, Fenicil, Tetro-cyclicene T., and others such as Salt plus T. M. plus Sulfa.

Joe Moffett will probably have more information on this in his reports. We also agreed that we need further study on nectar secretion in relation to soil samples. Joe may also have some report on this.

This committee also wishes to thank Mrs. Moffett for the wonderful chicken dinner she so graciously prepared for us, we surely enjoyed it.

Minutes of the 1956 Colorado Beekeepers Association meeting

The 1958 winter meeting of the Colorado Beekeepers Ass'n was held at the Auditorium Hotel in Denver, Dec. 8th and 9th, 1958. The meeting was opened with Pres. Rose in charge. Pres. Rose called on Mr. Garhart of Spearfish, S.D. to open the meeting with prayer.

Pres. Rose gave a brief report on the questionnaire sent out by the Honey Council to help in their research on the sale of honey. There was a discussion about the questionnaire from the Colo. State Dept. of Agri. in regard to how much honey is sold in the state and how much outside the state.

Ralph Stone reported on the progress of the booth at the Stock Show. Mr. Stone also reported on a letter in regard to a honorary fund that was being taken up for Harold Clay and James Hambleton.

A motion was made, seconded and carried that the CBA give $15.00 to the fund for a gift for Clay and Hambleton.

Pres. Rose discussed the problem of getting Bee Notes Published. A Motion was made, seconded and carried that Rose select a committee and that this committee have the power to act in getting Bee Notes published.

There was a discussion of the State Fair prizes.

There was a discussion in regard to CBA dues.

We were guests of the Superior Honey Co. for a fine luncheon at noon. There were about 35 present.

The meeting was again called to order by Pres. Rose at 1:30 pm. Mr. Joe Moffett of CSU gave a resume of his recent activities. He requested that we cooperate with the Dept. of Agriculture and the CSU entomology department. Mr. Moffett discussed the results of the grasshopper spray program during the 1958 season. He suggested that there was a great variation in the loss of bees in different colonies in the same yard.

Pat Powers, state bee inspector, reported on inspection. He reported 67,000 colonies in the state. Of these 12,000 were inspected and of these 2,500 were inspected by Powers. Powers suggested that we try to eliminate the objectionable parts of the 1958 grasshopper program.

Ralph Stone spoke on Marketing of Honey. He suggested Better displays and better packages.

Our guests from out of state were introduced, Mr. Garhart from S. Dakota, Mr. Kraus from Wyoming and two men from New Mexico.

Joaquin Watkins spoke on the problems of the beekeeper. He suggested that honey be sold in an orderly fashion, not dumped on the market at one time. A potential market might be realized in advertising honey for use in Athlete's diet and also in babies diets. Problems of the beekeeper in regard to production costs might be partially solved by the use of labor saving devices such as, the loader, power uncapping machines, higher production per hive and hybrid queens. Decreasing bee pasture and the abundant use of insecticides are helping to increase the cost of production. A united effort brought about by supporting both state and national associations would be beneficial to all concerned concluded Mr. Watkins.

A panel discussion with Bill Rice as Chairman brought out many questions and answers that were pertinent to the beekeeping industry.

The meeting opened Dec. 9th at 9:30 AM with Pres. Rose in charge. A motion was made, seconded and carried that we decide at the summer meeting if we want a booth at the Stock Show in 1960.

A motion was made, seconded and carried that the Arkansas Valley beekeepers be hosts for the summer meeting and if possible arrange for the picnic to be held at Salida, Colo.

There was a discussion on Honey house inspection. Joaquin Watkins gave a report on honey house sanitation.

Pres. Rose gave a report on spray problems. In a meeting with Mr. Swisher, the following suggestions were made for next year.

1. Locate bee yards on an aerial map in the county agents office.
2. Instruct applicator to cut off for bee yards.
3. Sprayers instructed to spray over bee yards early in the morning.

There was a discussion on protective signs for bee yards.

A motion was made, seconded and carried that the CBA have signs printed that would discourage vandalism in bee yards, and distribute them to CBA members at cost and that a committee be appointed with power to procure such signs.

W.E. Limbach read a report of the resolutions committee.

A motion was made and seconded that the report be accepted. Motion carried.

Pres. Rose discussed the possibility of reinstating CHAC. There was a ballot cast to determine those in favor of exploring the possibility of reinstating CHAC. The result was 10 for and 6 against.

The old board was to contact Mr. Swisher and explore the possibility of reinstating CHAC.

The Auditing committee reported the Treasurers books in order. A motion was made, seconded and carried that the report be accepted.

Mr. R.C. Green took charge and asked for a report of the nominating committee. The nominating committee nominated Rose, Adcock and Rice to succeed themselves in their present offices.
A motion was made, seconded and carried that the report of the nominating committee be accepted and that the secretary be instructed to cast a unanimous ballot for the three officers.

A motion was made, seconded and carried that John Faefeli and G.H. Rose be delegated to the Tampa meeting.

A motion was made, seconded and carried that Harold Rice be 1st. alternate, Wm. T. Wilson be second alternate and Joaquin Watkins be third alternate.

A motion was made seconded and carried that Pres. Rose be instructed to appoint a membership committee of men from every geographical section of the state and that they report quarterly as to their progress in getting new members.

A motion was made and seconded that the CBA allot $300.00 to CSU provided a man is secured that is suitable to the research committee.

A motion was made, seconded and carried that the meeting be adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

Harold E. Rice

Resolutions adopted at the 1958 convention of the Colorado Beekeepers Ass'n.

1. Be it resolved that we express appreciation to the Auditorium hotel for their hospitality and service.

2. Be it resolved that we thank the Superior Honey Co. for their noon luncheon.

3. Be it resolved that we thank the program committee consisting of L. E. Mills, Bill Rice, Kenneth Adcock and Ralph Stone for their efforts.

4. Be it resolved that our secretary be instructed to write the guest speaker Dr. McMclroy a letter of appreciation.

5. Be it resolved that we express appreciation to Mr. Gates, Dr. Daniels, Joe Moffett, Colo. State Univ. and the Colo. Dept. of Agriculture for services to the beekeeping industry.

6. Whereas, there is a demand upon the part of several agencies for the importation of foreign stock for selective breeding purposes, and
Whereas, there is a general realization of the serious danger in such importation due to the possibility of the introduction of acarine disease,
Be it resolved that the members of the Colorado Beekeepers Ass'n go on record as favoring the importation of breeding stock provided proper precautions and safeguards be set up by the United States Bee Culture laboratory.

7. Whereas, there is a pressing need for an improvement in the efficiency of uncapping machines, capping rendering equipment and honey extractors,
Be it resolved, that the Agricultural Research Service be requested to pay particular attention to the perfecting of these labor saving devices;
Further, Be it resolved that this resolution be submitted to the American Beekeeping Federation for their approval.

8. Whereas, the Price support program has been less effective due to light amber honey being unjustly classified as non-table honey and further, since the price differential between Western and Eastern honeys has tended to depress western honey prices,
Be it resolved that we recommend that proper steps be taken by the officers of the American Beekeeping Federation to rectify these two inequities.

All Resolutions were seconded and adopted.
For higher prices and more demand for Colorado honey... Cooperation and understanding among bee people... Better bee pasture... More efficient and productive beekeeping methods... Control poison sprays, diseases and enemies of bees.

L. E. Mills - Mentioned that the ABF directors meeting in Denver conflicted with the CBA meeting and, therefore, S. J. Watkins and J. O. Moffett were excused from the CBA meeting.

L. E. Mills - conducted the discussion of "B - Notes." W. T. Wilson gave the approximate cost of publication per year and the desire of the University in assisting the CBA in publishing the monthly newsletter.

Second - (by C. E. Pratt).

Vote: passed unanimously.

W. T. Wilson - discussed the present bee research program at Colorado State University. Work being done on Gallimycin, Thuricide, and nectar plants.

R. O. Green - talked on the meeting several prominent bee men had this spring in Denver with Paul Swisher, Commissioner of Agriculture concerning the moving of bees into Colorado by out of state beekeepers just for the honey flow. Beekeepers from mainly Texas and California have been moving in on resident beekeepers and causing serious crowding especially in the San Luis Valley. Possible legislation was discussed along with such items as taxes on out of state bees and requirement of having established yard locations before moving into Colorado.

L. E. Mills - called on each beekeeper at the meeting to describe their local nectar condition for "B - Notes".

L. E. Mills - started a discussion of honey house inspection. G. Rose of Wheat Ridge talked on his recent meeting with Thomas L. Ball of Superior Honey Company concerning their recent experiences with the U. S. Pure Food and Drug men. Rose said Ball had encountered difficulty in the advertising offer giving Dr. D. C. Jarvis' book "Folk Medicine" for $2.00 along with a Superior Company honey label. Rose said Superior had been accused of mislabeling. Tom Ball sent his best regards to the CBA summer meeting.
Pat Powers - gave a talk on bee yard registration and the new registration forms. He listed a lot of new bee men that had moved into Colorado from Texas and California. He further stated that all beekeepers must send in a "notice of arrival" when moving into the State.

Jack Holzberlein- thanked the people that helped him make the arrangements for the summer meeting and picnic. (Beekeepers were asked to donate towards the cost of the meeting and food). L. E. Mills instructed Holzberlein to contact Harold Rice if he needs more funds to cover meeting and food expenses.

G. Nichols and L. E. Mills - both reported some bees killed as a result of improper aerial spraying with insecticides in their areas.

Motion - (by G. Rose): that the CBA secretary (H. Rice) be instructed to send a letter stating a "vote of confidence" to Superior Honey Company in their present conflict with the U. S. Pure Food and Drug. The letter be sent in behalf of the Colorado Beekeepers' Association.

Second - (by Ethridge Belt)
