Changes announced by Holly Sugar

Holly Sugar Corporation's directors Friday promoted one officer and elected three others.

Elevated to executive vice president from vice president marketing was Marlin C. Chenburg.

New officers elected were Clement H. Roy, vice president-sales; John L. Bushnell, vice president-employee relations and Clarold F. Morgan, secretary and corporate counsel.

Roy had been eastern sales manager, Bushnell director of personnel and administration and Morgan associate counsel.

Chenburg is a graduate of the University of Colorado and the Advanced Management Program of the Harvard Business School. He joined Holly as an accounting and sales trainee in 1946 following his Army service.

Roy was an All-American hockey player at Colorado College and joined Holly's accounting department upon graduation in 1950.

Bushnell holds a law degree from the University of Denver Law School and joined Holly in 1965 as associate counsel.

Morgan is a native of Colorado
