

GUSTAFSON GALLERY

UPDATE

WINTER '87

FIRST UPDATE

The first "Gallery Update" from the Friends of the Gustafson Gallery is in your hands. This page is published to let you know of current events and future happenings. We want you to be involved with the Gustafson Gallery at Colorado State University.

Your name is on the mailing list to receive "Gallery Update." Please let us know if there is a change to be made with your address. Share the "Gallery Update" with a friend!

DONATIONS OF LOVE & PRIDE

The collection at CSU flourishes with donations from individuals who believe in the preservation of special garments and accessories. Donations become part of a unique hands-on collection to be used for study and admiration by students, faculty, and the community.

Janet Hethorn, Curator of the Gustafson Gallery, invites contributions of articles with historic, cultural, or even personal significance. Presently, garments that represent Colorado designers and dress makers are especially welcome.

If you have wonderful couture residing in your attic, come forth and further enhance the collection. If you are interested in donating to the permanent collection please contact Janet Hethorn at 491-1983.

THE LAST SMASHING SHOW

Legacy of Lace was the Gallery's fall exhibit of handmade European bobbin and needle lace. Our special thanks to ANNE-MARIE BRUYNINCKX, guest curator, for demonstrating her lovely talent and sharing her private collection. The Belgian lace maker, Anne-Marie, presented two programs on the history and identification of lace to over 100 enthusiastic participants. Congratulations to the Gustafson Gallery for this successful exhibit!

STYLED BY NATALYA

Our next delightful exhibit opens December 2nd (4-6 pm) with a reception and program by guest curator NATHALIE WOODRUFF. As Natalya, this Boulder designer has been creating fashions for over 30 years. Nathalie was one of the original members of the Denver Designers, the group that preceded the formation of the Denver Fashion Group. Recently she donated an extensive, exciting selection of her exclusive designs to the Gustafson Gallery. Bring a friend to see "Styled by Natalya" and visualize the movement of fashion in our lifetime.

VICTORIA TALKS ABOUT JEWELRY

Victoria Peer-Keller of Fort Collins will share the mystique of judging the quality, the era, and repairs of vintage costume jewelry. Exhibitors will be offering vintage and antique jewelry for sale and admiration. Mark your calendar for the morning of MARCH 26th and wear your treasures of the past.

FRIENDS OF THE GALLERY

JOIN THE FRIENDS who assist with promoting the Gallery! Become a part of sharing and offering others a glimpse into the past. More than 6000 articles of clothing and 500 flat textiles form one of the largest university collections in the United States.

JOIN THE EXCITEMENT!

Opening exhibits, educational presentations, and special workshops offer you the chance to view and learn more about the past as seen through garments, accessories, and fabrics.

We invite you to become a FRIEND!

OUR SPECIAL THANKS TO:

Special recognition is given to those who had an extraordinary part in assisting with the Gallery:

PHIL REISBECK who contributed the art work for the initial Gallery program and the poster for the Mae Combs' exhibit.

JACK CURFMAN who has assisted with every exhibit and especially the Lincoln Center exhibit "A Night Out." Jack also prepared and presented a superb slideshow of the Gallery and Dagmire Gustafson.

JAN & RON CRABB, owners of Blue Bird Cleaners in Boulder, who assist with technical advise and special cleaning. This spring Ron will be sharing knowledge on preservation of wedding gowns at the gallery opening on Historic Wedding Gowns.

Our appreciation also goes to a special team at CSU in University Communications: Gary Kimsey, Dale Rosenbach, and Jeannine Kline. THANKS!

PREVIEW OF 1988
