

Colorado
State University

In commemoration of the end of World War II, the Friends of the Gustafson Gallery present

The Fateful Forties: At Home - At War - At Peace

OneWest Art Center Mezzanine Gallery

The exhibition showcases 1940 vignettes emphasizing the American home front. Garments and memorabilia are on loan from community friends and the Historic Costume and Textiles Collection, Colorado State University.

*Listen to the big band sounds of Otto Werner.
Enjoy Champagne and Canapés.
Relive the 40s!*

You are invited to the Patrons' Party, May 20th, 6-8 pm.

*Reservations are $20
includes $14 donation for the expansion and renovation of the Gustafson Gallery
due by May 15th*

The exhibit will be open from May 23rd to July 8th.
Please invite family, friends, and summer guests to stop by OneWest from 10 to 5, Tuesday through Saturdays.

Please join us May 20th to honor and celebrate the end of WWII.

PS: Do you have a 40's costume or uniform to wear on the evening of May 20th?

The Friends of the Gustafson Gallery...

*LaVon Blaesi, Event Coordinator
Linda Carlson, Curator
Barbara Laughlin, President of FGG
Reta Ralph, Program Chair
Jack Curfman, Exhibit Designer
Beth Hill, Memorabilia
June Kissock, Vignettes*