Offerings of 173,000 tons or more of refined sugar, some at low prices, to Greece on its inquiry to buy 35,000 tons of sugar on the world market, created selling of world sugar futures. Trade sources said a London dealer confirmed it sold Syria about 10,000 tons of raw sugar Tuesday at a low price, and this also stimulated selling of futures. Late in the day, dealers heard Greece had bought about 20,000 tons of refined sugar.
