Weeds in some beet fields cause problems, as these two men are shown cleaning out topper, jammed by heavy growth of weeds. Under proper conditions, weeds are pretty well controlled by chemicals and hand work but many farmers accept the weedy situation.