New Aggie Spirit Party Wins Freshman Election

Bill Mann is Selected
Freshman Class Prexy, Yotter is Vice President

The new Aggie Spirit party swept a clean path before Tuesday night when all their candidates received the 775 vote cast in the freshman class officer elections.

Bill Mann was chosen freshman class president and he will be assisted by Glenn Yotter, vice president. Secretary and treasurer will be Dora Dunkelberger and Betty Worth, respectively.

The Aggie Spirit party was installed after the Student Commission announced that the election results had been counted.

According to a statement made by members of the new administration the party wishes to commend the freshman class for the clean and honest election.

Their platform points out that this was the first clean election in the history of the college.

The new administration will work to improve the campus and the school.
Sincerely to help keep the traditions which were originated by this school to the fore and vied with the students to see who could be the first to make the necessary changes or reparations. Any dissatisfaction on their part quickly. Johnny is delighted to become a part in the near future.

Engraved Announces Plans To Improve A& M Substations

Experiment Station Director Homer J. Hardesty will address a group of agronomists and entomologists and announce the initial appearance of a new type of substation. This will be the first of several substation demonstrations to be made by the director. Dr. Hardesty recently returned from the eastern part of the country where he was studying the importance and effectiveness of such "sit-ins." This demonstration of the effects of each can be observed by observing the color of each sit-in area at the end of the demonstration.

The eight substation demonstrations will be conducted for the purpose of educating the public about the potential of sit-ins as a method of solving problems. Each sit-in will be planned and organized by a group of students who are interested in planning and carrying out the work. Each sit-in will be operated by a superintendent with the active participation of farmers, ranchers, and other interested groups. Each sit-in will be enrolled in science and arts.

enrollment is 3,518. Most veterans are enrolled part-time. Thirteen of them did not finish high school but passed proficiency examinations for admission. Most veterans are enrolled in forestry, engineering, and animal science.

AGGIES HEAD FOR TURKEY TILT: AERIAL OFFENSE IS STRETTED AS ONLY METHOD TO BEAT C.U.

On Thanksgiving Day the Aggies and Buffs will be fighting over the scraps of the conference "turkey" since DU and Utah seem to have everything else already taken care of. However, the Aggies are not to be taken lightly, for they are more than capable of defeating any team they are matched against.

The Aggies' aerial offense will be their main weapon in this battle. The Buffs, who have been suffering from a lack of aerial weapons, will be faced with a formidable aerial attack. The Aggies have a strong aerial unit, with some of the finest players in the country. They have been working hard to prepare for this game and are ready to give their best effort.

In the backfield positions the Aggies have a strong team of running backs, including Painter and Forest, who will be a threat to the Buffs' defense. The Aggies' aerial unit will be led by Thompson, who is a sure-fire all-conference center.

The Buffs will have to give their best effort to stop the Aggies' aerial offense. They will have to rely on their defense to prevent the Aggies from scoring. The Buffs' defense has been working hard to prepare for this game and is ready to give their best effort.

In the meeting of the two teams, the Aggies will have to keep their aerial offense going strong. They will have to rely on their running backs to keep the Buffs' defense occupied. The Aggies' aerial unit will have to be ready to make the most of any opportunities they get.

The Buffs will have to keep their defense strong and be ready to make any necessary adjustments. They will have to rely on their running backs to keep the Aggies' aerial unit occupied. The Buffs' defense will have to be ready to stop the Aggies' aerial offense at any cost.

In conclusion, the Aggies and Buffs will be fighting over the scraps of the conference "turkey" on Thanksgiving Day. The Aggies have a strong aerial offense, while the Buffs have a strong defense. The game will be a battle of wits and skills, with both teams giving their best effort.
The Alumni Club of Colorado State University will meet on Saturday night, November 12, to take over its duties as host librarian at the Alumni Club headquarters in Cheyenne, Wyoming. Miss Davis's term of service became effective November 11.

4-H Club Is Host For Foreman Groups

The Colorado 4-H state meeting to be held on December 6, will be held in cooperation with the Young Farmers and Home-makers Conference at the Keystone Hotel.

A dinner dance at six o'clock will be followed by square dancing and games. The winners will receive the prize of the student council, in which club will be represented by a team, through the various activities of the campus and farm, and recreational activities of the Foreman club, recreation specialist of the extension service.
