You bring them a little something that they need. Michaela wants a red flannel middy - yes, Donald needs a pair of warm gloves or a flannel shirt. Sarah a plain white dress. Something from some place where you have been will mean so much to the children.

Lots of love

and delivered your message per request. I hope you had time to have your dental work completed while in Washington. We are all counting the day till we shall see you. I don’t know whether this will reach you or not but if it does the children would like to have that report you can confer with regards to Ref. 1. You can convey it.

If you should need anything, please let me know. Clara Hughes called for a few minutes. She said "You mustn’t go away."
