PROGRAM: Mrs. Linda Hudson, psychologist, will speak to us about how to more effectively communicate verbally and non-verbally with administrators, physicians and the other men in your life. Some of the topics she will cover are life-scripting, transactional analysis, and tips on how to move a conversation from a parent-child interaction to the adult-adult level. She is a very energetic and interesting speaker, and should give us lots of new ideas.

Minutes of the Meeting of the Colorado Council of Medical Librarians
Wednesday May 20, 1981

The regular bi-monthly meeting of the Colorado Council of Medical Librarians was held May 20, 1981 at the Botanic Gardens. Eleanor Krakauer called the meeting to order at 9:30 A.M.

Joan Roith introduced guests and new members:

- Mildred Owen - Medical Library, Fort Carson
- Joan Latta - V A Trainee
- Mary Alderfer - Denver General Hospital

Minutes of the March 25th meeting were corrected to read Robert Shaklee and then approved.

The treasurer’s report given by Sara Katsh showed a beginning balance of $948.84 and a balance on May 20, 1981 of $1,046.85. The balance of the MCMLA account as of May 20, 1981 was $2,338.61. Sara reported that the legal advice regarding CCML'S tax exempt status wasn't worth the cost. He will look into relationship with IRS. After some discussion it was moved and carried that CCML drop efforts for a tax exempt status but pursue its relationship with the IRS.
