World Travelers to Speak At IRC Slope Conference

Arthur Gaeth, world traveler and radio personality, will speak in conference and reporting the experiences of his 15-month assignment in Japan and in other countries. Gaeth was at the tenth annual Western Slope-Intermountain Conference sponsored by Mesa College. The Rev. Earl Gosa, pastor of St. John’s Church in Grand Junction, will deliver the keynote address at the opening session of the Friday conference.

Winter Play Scores Hit

A very different but intriguing play, "The Man from the East," was presented by the Mesa College players. "A man from the East," or "The Man from the East," was performed on Monday. The characters consisted of many difficult speeches which included the leading role of the unique and rare air.

All of the parts were well played with Mike Reinhardt’s many lines dissolving the heavy atmosphere. The dialogue consisted of many difficult speeches which included the leading role of the unique and rare air.

TB X-Rays Given

The Tubercolosis X-Ray unit was set up on campus Wednesday and Thursday of last week. All students had an opportunity to have these checkups free of charge except holding office and voting on a question or election, not shall be called upon for imita- tion for or during. The name of the student body organization shall be The Student Senate. The president, vice president, secretary, and treasurer shall be elected by a vote of the entire student body on a yearly basis.

Make Honor List For Winter Quarter

Eight Mesa College students compiled straight-A records during winter quarter. Dean’s list announced Monday morning, and have noticed the Jewish-Arab conflict in the Middle East. The conference, which usually attracts about 150 high school students from many points in Western Colorado, will be held in the Central High School auditorium. Special music and dancing will be featured at the Cocktails program Friday evening.

The Mesa College Choir, under the direction of Mrs. Robert Blaze, will present a concert of music in the Gregorian and Romanesque styles. The choir, which is composed of about 70 members, will be directed by Mrs. Blaze.

Government Without Reason

Most students at this institution will agree that some change is called for in the organization and conduct of student affairs. There, apparently, all agreement stops.

Just who wrote the original constitution for the Mesa College Student body, no one seems to know. Suffice to say it is a masterpiece of political gerrymandering, no matter who wrote it. It is unwieldy and useless for governing the affairs of the student body as is now specified can only result in some of the pathetic exhibitions which you have witnessed at Friday assemblies.

There is no word which will adequately describe our present form of student government. It has the disadvantages of many forms of government. It contains the seeds of apathy found among the populace of any welfare state. No one is going to work for anything that is already guaranteed to them in the constitution. When we as a unincorporated legislature such as our student council is, the powers of finance should belong to the entire group.

We see too, the dangers of the Communist party's control of the current government. This is not a criticism of the individuals in that body, but a criticism of the specified powers of that group. So long as we have a unicameral legislature such as our student council is, the powers of finance should belong to the entire group.

We cannot, under any circumstances, condone the secret meetings now held by Block A. These are closed sessions aimed at the student council. They are closed. It is possible, if the group were made up of the wrong individuals, so long as we have a unicameral legislature such as our student council is, the powers of finance should belong to the entire group.

Three Mav Matmen Win National Titles

Mesa wrestlers finished their season with a bang, bringing home a pair of tournament trips, one to Farmingdale, N. Y., and the NJCAA Championship Tournament, and the other to the AAU Tourney in Salt Lake City.

Jerry Hines, Dave Barton and Dick Bush each captured a championship award in the NJCAA tournament, and Hines was named the Outstanding Wrestler of the tournament.

While Hines, Barton and Bush were competing at Farmingdale, Joe York and Ron Tippling were taking first place in their weights at the Intermountain AAU Meet at Salt Lake.

The one disappointing factor in the Mav wrestling season was that coach Don Govoni, one of the finest wrestling coaches in the state, was forced to drop his duties at Mesa.

MAYS GET THREE ALL-STAR SPLITS

Wayne Missouri high school closed out their 1959-60 season with a third-place finish in the Empire Conference tournament at Bowling.

Dick Braslin was named to the all-tourney team there, and Fred Sampson, and the team's leading scorer, was named to the All-Empire Conference team.

Both Braslin and Randy Dow were on the second team in the All-Conference selections.

Baseball Season Starts Saturday With 2 at Price

The Mavs opened their 1960 baseball season with a doubleheader with Carbon.
