CSU and Bohemian Foundation partner for Contemporary Music Series

The Contemporary Artist Music Series was created to expose our students to different models of success in the music world and to help bridge the gap between Classical and Contemporary music for audience members. The opportunity to hear Contemporary music in traditional Classical performance venues will be fascinating.

- Todd Queen, Chair, Department of Music, Theatre and Dance

This series is an exciting way to feature local musicians and CSU alumni in an intimate setting. In furtherance of Bohemian Foundation's music mission, we support this series as a means of increasing the amount of live contemporary music performances in Fort Collins and encouraging audience and community support of local musicians.

- Kristen Karabensh, Director of Music Programs, Bohemian Foundation

Artist Bio: Shilo Stroman

Percussionist, drum-set player, and jazz bassist Shilo Stroman presents a new project of the modern song cycle using pop and jazz tunes to create a perspective on love and relationships.

Together with Wendy Fopeano on vocals, Ryan Fourt and Bard Hoff on guitars, Matt Smiley on bass, and Jeremy Maytum on percussion, the concert will reflect the journey of a relationship, from meeting the person, falling in love, breaking up, and then the aftermath, over the entirety of the show – inspired by albums like Joni Mitchell's "Both Sides Now."

Stroman graduated with a Bachelor's degree in music from Colorado State in 2001 and went on to earn his Master's in Music from CSU in 2008. He is a licensed teacher in the state of Colorado and currently serves as the Colorado Chapter President of the Percussive Arts Society (PAS).

About the University Center for the Arts

The University Center for the Arts at Colorado State University provides an enriched venue in which the study and practice of Music, Theatre, Dance, and Art are nurtured and sustained by building the skills and knowledge needed by future generations of arts professionals to become contributors to the essential vitality of our culture and society. With thousands of community members, family, and friends walking through our doors this year, we have engaged students and alumni, created new programs, grown existing ones, and are poised to continue growth and excellence. During the 2013-2014 season, the UCA celebrates its fifth anniversary and features several celebratory events that highlight connecting our campus and community with impactful arts.
