

Moby Arena

1966 - present

The CSU Auditorium/Gymnasium, proposed in 1962, marked the start of a campaign to gain entrance into the Western Athletic Conference. In 1966, a Rocky Mountain Collegian sports editor called it the Moby Gym, referring to its whale-like shape. The nickname stuck. Moby Arena has functioned as a multi-purpose facility for athletic events and graduation commencement ceremonies, as well as a venue for internationally renowned speakers and performances by prominent musical groups.
