My Body Sings Electric

Wednesday, Oct. 9

7:30 p.m.

Griffin Concert Hall

Sponsored by Bohemian Foundation

CSU and Bohemian Foundation partner for Contemporary Music Series

The Contemporary Artist Music Series was created to expose our students to different models of success in the music world and to help bridge the gap between Classical and Contemporary music for audience members. The opportunity to hear Contemporary music in traditional Classical performance venues will be fascinating.

- Todd Queen, Chair, Department of Music, Theatre and Dance

This series is an exciting way to feature local musicians and CSU alumni in an intimate setting. In furtherance of Bohemian Foundation's music mission, we support this series as a means of increasing the amount of live contemporary music performances in Fort Collins and encouraging audience and community support of local musicians.

- Kristen Karabensh, Director of Music Programs, Bohemian Foundation

Artist Bio: My Body Sings Electric

My Body Sings Electric's music resonates with a sense of playfulness and lust for life. Members Brandon Whalen, Nick Crawford, Jeff Fedel, Jason Bower, and Ben Scarboro are much like a charming friend who can light up a room with laughter. Call their music indie. Call it pop. Call it what you will, but after hearing their music, you'll feel as if you just met your five new best friends.

The band was crowned winners of KTCL's Hometown for the Holidays contest in 2012 (the third straight year they had placed in the top 3) - sweeping both the overall prize and the crowd favorite vote. The win pushed MBSE into the ranks of hugely successful previous winners like The Flobots, Churchill, Air Dubai and The Epilogues.
