

GRAD592

Law, Governance, and Management of the Colorado River

COLORADO WATER CENTER
COLORADO STATE UNIVERSITY

watercenter.colostate.edu/grad592

REFLECTIONS

on the 100th Anniversary of the signing of the Colorado River Compact

Climate change, decreasing flows, increasing population and economic uses have challenged Colorado River managers and policymakers.

This class will explore the history, law, management and current challenges facing all who depend on the Colorado River.

Registered students will attend in person.

August 22

Introduction and Preview

August 29

Law of the Colorado River

Jennifer Gimbel, CoWC

September 5 — No Class

September 12

Climate Change and the Colorado River

Brad Udall, CoWC

September 19

Colorado River and Tribes

Ute Mountain Ute Representative

September 26

Colorado River Symposium, CSU

Attend on campus

October 3

Colorado River and Northern Colorado

Brad Wind, Northern Water

October 10

Colorado River and Western Colorado

Steve Wolff, Southwestern Colorado River Conservation District
Andy Mueller, Colorado River Conservation District

October 17

Policy for the State of Colorado

Becky Mitchell, Colorado Water Conservation Board

October 24

Policy for the Upper Basin

Chuck Cullom, Upper Colorado River Compact Commission

October 31

Policy for the Lower Basin

Brenda Burman, former Commissioner of Reclamation

November 7

Management of Colorado River

Terry Fulp, former Regional Director, Reclamation

November 14

Environmental Issues on the Colorado River

Jennifer Pitt, National Audubon Society
Taylor Hawes, The Nature Conservancy

November 21 — No Class

November 28

Dialogue on Colorado River Challenges

Jennifer Gimbel, CoWC

December 5

Presentation of Final Papers