Harry Stafylakis was among the young composers chosen at the 2013 Aries Composer Festival. The faculty played part of his Kritikos Horos. We are now presenting the complete work. The composer will be on campus again and give us an introduction to both of his compositions on the program.

Haralabos [ Harry ] Stafylakis (b. 1982) is a Canadian-American composer based in New York City. His concert music strives for dramatic emotional and intellectual expression, integrating idioms drawn from classical and popular styles. With an intimate background in progressive metal and traditional Greek music, Stafylakis has developed a unique conception of musical temporality and rhythm, infusing his compositions with a characteristic vitality and drive.
