A MESSAGE FROM THE ARTISTIC PRODUCER

With sincerest gratitude, thank you for your patronage of the School of Music, Theatre, and Dance at Colorado State University. A project of this magnitude cannot be successfully presented without the creativity, work ethic, and flexibility of hundreds of individuals, offering thousands of hours of time and artistry through performance, planning, and preparation. We are grateful for the opportunity to share a glimpse of our artistry with you during the busiest time of the year and hope that our Holiday Spectacular helps to jump start a holiday season that brings out the best in all of us. On behalf of the School of Music, Theatre, and Dance, I want to wish you a happiest of holidays - may your days be merry and bright, may they be full of joy and laughter, and may they be enriched by great music, today and beyond!

ADAM A TORRES

Holiday Spectacular Director

A LETTER FROM THE DIRECTOR...

Welcome to the annual Holiday Spectacular, presented by the School of Music, Theatre, and Dance! Thank you very much for joining us in a celebration of the many musical traditions that endear this season to each of us in special ways. This performance is the realization of countless hours of preparation by students in all areas of the school, including musicians, costume designers, lighting designers, sound designers, stage managers, props, and technical directors. I know that you will agree that our students are truly amazing.

While the net proceeds of our ticket sales will go to support our wonderful performing arts students, I hope you will join me in making a greater commitment to these deserving students, and the bright future they represent, by making a gift tonight. On your way out this evening, stop by one of our tables in the lobby to pick up a form and envelope and leave your gift in the large wrapped green and gold box, or go to smtcd.colostate.edu/giving to make a gift online.

From all of us in the School of Music, Theatre, and Dance, we hope you enjoy the show and wish you a very happy holiday season!

GUEST CONDUCTOR TARAS KRYSA

Taras Krysa serves as the director of orchestras at UNLV and music director of the Henderson Symphony Orchestra.

Krysa was born in Kiev, Ukraine to a musical family and began his formal studies as a violinist at the Moscow Conservatory. After moving to United States, Krysa continued his studies at Indiana University and Northwestern University both in violin and conducting. His conducting teachers have included Victor Yampolsky, Jorma Panula, and David Zinman. As a violinist, Krysa has won positions with the New World Symphony orchestra and St. Louis Symphony Orchestras.

In recent seasons, his conducting appearances have included National Ukrainian Symphony Orchestra, Orchestra van het Osten, New World Symphony, St. Petersburg Symphony, Moscow Soloists, Slovak Sinfonietta, Spoleto Festival Chamber Orchestra, Kiev Chamber Orchestra, and the Lublin Philharmonic Orchestra. He has made three critically acclaimed recordings for the Brilliant Classics label. Krysa has also served as principal conductor of the Ukrainian State Symphony Orchestra, which he led on the several European tours with the appearance at the Concertgebouw Hall.

Celebrate the season of giving...

On behalf of the School of Music, Theatre, and Dance at Colorado State University, thank you for attending today's Holiday Spectacular performance. It is especially meaningful that you've chosen to spend a little time to share the joy of live music with us during the busiest time of the year. If you would like to provide additional financial support, your patronage will provide scholarship and programmatic support for student artists such as the ones you've heard on stage tonight. Simply drop your donation into the gift box as you leave the concert.

Checks should be made payable to Colorado State University Foundation

OR make your gift online at smt.d.colostate.edu/giving

We wish you a very happy holiday season!
